CASPER MOUNTAIN BIATHLON NOVICE-INTERMEDIATE CAMP

Casper, WY

August 27-29, 2021

Casper Mountain Biathlon Club

The August camp is geared towards novice and intermediate biathletes looking to refine their biathlon skills for race day. This camp is a good follow-up to the Red Book class, or for someone who has been doing biathlon for a little while and is looking to speed up range times and hit more targets. Casper Mountain Biathlon Club has a 30-point range with asphalt loops for rollerski training. Camp participants can either rollerski or run/walk for camp activities. Camp activities will be led by Olympic biathlete Rob Rosser with support from additional coaches. A low-key race will be held Sunday to put new skills to practice!
